WAITING FOR MAY.

Ah! my heart is weary waiting,
Waiting for the May;
Waiting for the pleasant rambles,
Where the fragrant hawthorn brambles,
With the woodbine alternating,
Scent the dewy way.

Ah! my heart is sore with sighing,
Sighing for the May;
Sighing for the sure returning,
When the summer's beams are burning,
Hopes and flowers that dead or dying,
All the winter lay.

Ah! my heart, my heart is throbbing,
Throbbing for the May,
Throbbing for the sea-side billows,
Or the water wooing willows,
Where in laughter and in sobbing,
Glide the streams away.

THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

The Amendatory Enrollment Bill, as it passed both Houses of Congress, and now awaits the President's signature, provides that the President of the United States shall be authorized, whenever he shall deem it necessary during the present war, to call for such number of men for the military service as the public exigencies may require. The quota of each ward of a city, town, township, precinct or election district of a county, where the county is not thus divided, shall be as nearly as possible in proportion to the number of men resident therein liable to render military service, taking into account as far as practicable, the number which has been previously furnished.

In ascertaining and filling the quota there is to be taken into account the number of men who have heretofore entered the naval service of the United States, and whose names are already returned to the office of the Provost-Marshal General. If the quotas shall not be filled within the time designated by the President, the Provost Marshal is to make a draft for the number deficient, but all volunteers who may enlist after the draft shall have been ordered, and before it shall be actually made, shall be deducted from the number ordered to be drafted in such ward, town, township, precinct or election district or county.

If the quota of any district shall not be filled by the draft made in accordance with the provisions of this act, and the law to which this is an amendment, further drafts shall be made and like proceedings had, until the quota of such districts shall be filled.

Persons enrolled may furnish, at any time previous to the draft, an acceptable substitute who is not liable to draft, and such person thus furnishing a substitute shall be exempt from draft not exceeding the time for which such substitute shall have been accepted. Any person drafted may, before the time fixed for his appearance at the draft or rendezvous, furnish an acceptable substitute, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

If any drafted person shall hereafter pay money for the procuration of a substitute, such payment shall operate only to relieve the person from draft on that call, and his name shall be retained on that call, and he shall be subject to draft in filling that quota, and his name shall be retained on the roll in filling future quotas; but in no instance shall the exemption of any person on account of his payment of commutation money for the procuration of a substitute extend beyond one year, but, at the end of one year in every such case the name of any person so exempted shall be enrolled again, if not before returned to the enrollment list under the provisions of this section.

The Boards of Enrollment are required to enroll all persons liable to draft, whose names may have been omitted by the proper officers, all persons who shall arrive at the age of twenty years before the draft, all aliens who shall declare their intentions to become citizens, all persons discharged from the military or naval service of the United States who have not been in such service two years during the present war, and all persons who have been exempted under the provisions of the second section of the enrollment act, but who are not exempted by the provisions of the present act, and the said Boards of Enrollment shall release and discharge from draft all persons who, between the time of enrollment and the draft, shall have arrived at the age of forty-five years, and shall strike the names of such persons from the enrollment. Any mariner or able or ordinary seaman who shall be drafted shall have the right, within eight days after their notification of such draft, to enlist in the naval service, as a seaman and be exempt from the draft. Any person now in the military service of the United States who shall furnish satisfactory proof that he is a mariner by vocation or an able seaman, may enlist into the navy under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the President of the United States; provided that such enlistment shall not be less than the unexpired term of his military service, nor for less than one year, and the bounty which any mariner or seaman enlisting from the army into the navy may have received from the United States, or from the State in which he enlisted in the army, shall be deducted from the prize money to which he may become entitled during the time required to complete his military service; and provided further that the whole number of such transfer enlistments shall not exceed 10,000. Enlistments in the naval service are to be credited to the draft.

The following persons are exempted from the enrollment and draft:—Such as are rejected as physically or mentally unfit for the service; all persons actually in the military or naval service of the United States at the time of the draft; and all persons who have served in the military or naval service two years during the present war and been honorably discharged, and no persons but such as herein exempted shall be exempt.

So much of the Enrollment act as provides for two classes of enrollment is repealed, and they are now consolidated.

Any person forcibly resisting, or aiding to resist or oppose the enrollment, etc., shall, upon conviction therefor in any court competent to try the offense, be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both of these punishments, in the discretion of the Court; and in cases where assaulting, obstructing or impeding shall produce death, the offender shall be deemed guilty of murder, and on conviction shall be punished with death.

The Secretary of War is authorized to detail additional surgeons for temporary duty in the examination of drafted persons, and he is authorized to permit or require boards of examination to hold their examinations at different points within their enrollment districts, to be determined by him.

Provost Marshals, Boards of Enrollment, or any member thereof, have power to summon witnesses in behalf of the Government, and to enforce their attendance.

Members of religious denominations, who shall by oath or affirmation declare that they are conscientiously opposed to the bearing of arms, and who are prohibited from doing so by the rules and articles of faith and practice of such religious denomination, shall, when drafted into the military service, be considered non combatants, and shall be assigned by the Secretary of War to duty in the hospitals, or to the care of freedmen, or shall pay the sum of three hundred dollars, to be applied to the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers. Provided, That no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this section unless his declaration of conscientious scruples against bearing arms shall be supported by satisfactory evidence that his deportment has been uniformly consistent with such declarations.

No person of foreign birth shall, on account of alienage, be exempted from enrollment or draft who has at any time assumed the rights of a citizen by voting at any election held under the authority of the laws of any State or Territory of the United States, or who has held any office under such laws or any of them, but the fact that such person of foreign birth has voted or held or shall vote or hold office, shall be taken as conclusive evidence that he is not entitled to exemption from military service on account of alienage.

Any person drafted and liable to render military service, who shall procure exemption by fraud or false representation, is to be deemed a deserter, to be punished as such, and held to service for the full term for which he was drafted, reckoning from the time of his arrest, provided that the Secretary of War may order the discharge of all persons in the military service who are under the age of eighteen at the time of the application for their discharge when it shall appear upon the proof that such persons are in the service without the consent, either express or implied, of their parents or guardians, and provided that such persons, their parents or guardians, shall first repay to the Government, and to the State and local authorities all bounties and advance pay which may have been paid to them.

Any persons who shall procure, or attempt to procure a false report from the Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment, concerning the physical condition of any drafted person, or a decision in favor of such person by the Board of Enrollment upon a claim to exemption, knowing the same to be false, shall, upon conviction in any district or circuit court of the United States, be punished by imprisonment for the period for which the party was drafted.

The fee of agents and attorneys for making out and causing to be executed papers in support of a claim for exemption from draft, or any service rendered to the claimant, shall not in any case exceed five dollars, and physicians or surgeons furnishing certificates of disability, and any officer, clerk or deputy connected with the Board of Enrollment who shall receive compensation from any drafted man for any service, or obtaining the performance of such service, required from any member of the Board by the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction be fined, not exceeding five hundred dollars, and shall also be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, at the discretion of the Court.

No member of the Board of Enrollment, and no surgeon detailed or employed to assist the Board of Enrollment, and no clerk, assistant or employee of any Provost Marshal or Board of Enrollment, shall directly or indirectly be engaged in procuring substitutes for persons drafted or liable to be drafted, and any surgeon making a false or incorrect report, or who shall willfully neglect to make a faithful inspection and true report, and any member of the Board of enrollment who shall willfully agree to discharge from service any drafted person who is not legally and properly entitled to discharge, are to be punished by fine and imprisonment.

All able-bodied male colored persons between the ages of twenty and forty-five years, resident in the United States, shall be enrolled, according to the provisions of the Enrollment act and to this amendatory act, and form part of the National forces; and when a slave of a loyal master shall be drafted and mustered into the service of the United States, his master shall have a certificate thereof, and thereupon such slave shall be free, and the bounty of $100 now payable by law for such drafted man, shall be paid to the person whom such drafted person was owing service or labor at the time of his muster into the service of the United States.

The Secretary of War shall appoint a commission in each of the States represented in Congress, charged to award to each loyal person to whom the colored volunteer may owe service a just compensation, not exceeding $300 to each colored volunteer, payable out of the fund derived from commution, and every such colored volunteer on being mustered into the service shall be free: and in all cases where men of color have been heretofore enlisted or have volunteered into the military service, all the provisions of this act, so far as the payment of bounty and compensation are provided, shall be equally applied to those who may be hereafter recruited, but men of color, drafted or enlisted or who may volunteer into the military service, while they shall be credited on the quotas of the several States or sub divisions of States, whenever they are respectively drafted enlisted or volunteered, shall not be assigned as State troops, but shall be mustered into regiments or companies as United States colored volunteers.

The wards, precincts and election districts, as used in this act, are not to be construed to require any subdivision for the purpose of enrollment and draft less than the wards into which any city or village may be divided, or than the towns or townships into which any county may be divided.

GOV. GRIS[WOLD]

A TRUE ST[ORY]

When the Bri[tish] ed New London [and] set a price on th[e] wold, the latter [was] Lyme, where h[e] hid him for so[me] farm house. [The] foe discovered [his] sunny afternoon [he] ed from his hiding [place] that a band of [men] proaching to cap[ture]

His only chil[d] reach the mouth [of] which emptied [into] necticut river just [above] of the latter into [the] There he had a [small] two faithful attel[ants] neath the high [bank] The distance from [the] house to the boat was two [hundred] yards the usual traveled road. But [a] sheep path across the farmer's [land] would bring him to the road [a] mile from the boat, and save [him] a length of his fearful run for [life].

Just where the [sheep] path from the orchard opened [into] the road, Hetty Marvin sat with [a] dog Towser, tending the bleaching [of] the household linen. The [web] of forty yards, or more, which [had] diligently spun or woven during [the] long winter months, was whitening [in] May, and thus made ready for [use]. This business of bleaching was [not] economized, being usually done [by] young or daughters of the [family] who were not old enough to [be] strong enough for the heavier [work] of the kitchen or dairy.

The roll of linen was [laid] by the farmer or his stout [help] on the grassy plat, beside a spring or [little] brook. There it was thoroughly [wetted] and spread upon the grass [under] the heat of the sun [and] the dew at night. The [linen] and as fast as the sun [dried] she would sprinkle the water [upon] with her ground shell dipper, and make it wet again.

Thus sat Hetty Marvin, the younger daughter of Gov. Griswold's cousin, when her hunted friend sprang past her into the road to escape from his pursuers. Hetty was a timid child of about twelve years; yet thoughtful and wise beyond many of her elders. She was frightened by the headlong haste with which the Governor rushed across the meadow. But she quickly comprehended the scene; and it stantly plieted her faithful Towser, who, though a friend of the family guest, thought it becoming to bark loudly at his hurried steps.

Her wise forethought arrested the Governor's notice, and suggested a scheme to delude his pursuers.

"Hetty," he said, earnestly, "I am flying for my life; and unless I can reach my boat before am overtaken, I am a lost man. Ye see the road forks here. Now I must to run down this way to the river But you must tell the rascals whom are chasing me, that I have gone up the road to catch the mail wagon, which will soon be along, you know. Then they will turn off the other way."

"Oh, cousin!" said the little girl, in an agony of distress "I cannot tell a lie; indeed I cannot Why did you tell me which way you were going?"

"Hetty, dear child, surely you would not betray me to my death!—Hark!—they are coming!—I hear the click of their horses feet. Oh, Hetty, tell them I have gone up the road instead of down; and Heaven will bless you."

"Heaven never esses those who speak falsely, cousin But I will not tell them which way you go, even if they kill me, so run quickly as possible."

"It's of no use; less I can deceive them, I am a dead man."

"Cousin, cousin de under my web of cloth; they'd never think of looking for you here come, get down as swift as you can I'll cover you, and stand sprinkling my linen."

"It's my only ace, child; I'll get down as you s And suiting the action to the word the Governor was soon hidden under the ample folds of the cloth.

Angry that the expected prey had escaped from the case where they hoped to secure him the six mounted Tories, headed by a British officer, dashed along the road in swift pursuit. At sight of the little girl in the meadow the leader of the party paused.

"Child," he said, sternly, "have you seen a man running away hereabouts?"

"Yes, sir," replied Hetty, trembling and flushing.

"Which way did he go?"

"I promised not to tell, sir."

"But you must, or take the consequences."

"I said I wouldn't tell you if you killed me," sobbed the frightened girl."

"I'll have it out of her," exclaimed the furious officer, with an oath.

"Let me speak to her," said his Tory guide. "Hist—what's your name Hetty Marvin?" he asked pleasantly.

"Yes sir."

"And this man who ran by you a few minutes ago was your mother's cousin, wasn't he?"

"Yes, sir, he was."

"Well, we are friends of his—what did he say to you when he came along?"

"He—he told me—that he was flying for his life."

"Just so, Hetty; that was very true. I hope he won't have to fly far. Where was he going to try to hide? you see I could help him if I knew his plans."

Now, Hetty was not a whit deceived by this smooth speech But she was willing to tell as much of the truth as would consist with his safety; and she wisely judged that her frankness would serve her kinsman better than her silence. So she answered her questioner candidly. "My cousin said he was going down this way to the river, where he had a boat; and he wanted me to tell the men that were chasing him that he had gone the other way to catch the mail-wagon."

"Why didn't you do as he bid you, then, when I asked where he had gone?" thundered the officer, fiercely.

"I could not tell a lie, sir," was the tearful answer.

"Hetty," again began the smooth-tongued Tory, "you are a nice child. Every body knows you are a nice girl of truth. What did your cousin say else for it is the very truth you tell me? He said he shouldn't think I'd betray him to his death."

"And then you promised him that you wouldn't tell which way he went if you was killed for it?"

"Yes, sir."

"That was a brave speech; and I suppose he thanked you for it, and ran down the road as quickly as possible."

"I promised not to tell where he went, sir."

"Oh, yes I forgot. Well, tell us his last words, and we won't trouble you any more."

"His last words were: "It's my only chance, child, and I'll get down as you say." And overcome by a sense of her kinsman's danger, should they rightly interpret the language which she had reported, she sobbed aloud, and hid her face from sight.

Her tormenters did not stay longer to scold her or question her. They had got, as they supposed, the information which they wanted; and pushed rapidly down to the river. Now, the Governor had arranged a signal with his boatman, that a white cloth by day, or light in the night, displayed from the attic of his hiding-place, which was just visible at the mouth of the creek, should inform them if he were in trouble, and put them upon the alert to help him. As soon, therefore, as he started from his cousin's the signal floated from the window to warn them. And when they saw the pursuing party dash madly down the river, and recognized the British uniform of the leader, they pulled swiftly out to sea. The horsemen reached the shore only in season to see the boat, with two men in it, nearly out of sight; and supposing their destined prey had escaped, relinquished the pursuit.

Meanwhile the hunted victim lay safely and quiet, where the simple shrewdness of his little cousin had hid him, until the time came for her to return to the house for supper. Then he bade her go as usual to her home, telling her to ask her mother to place the signal lamp, as soon as it grew dark, in the window for the boatmen; and to send him there some supper, with his valise, which, in the hurry of his departure, he had left behind.

The signal recalled the boat, which, after twilight had ventured in sight of the shore and the farm house; and the Governor made his way to the river in safety. When he rejoined his family in a secure home, he named the infant daughter, which had been born in his absence, "Hetty Marvin," that he might be daily reminded of the little cousin whose truth and shrewdness had saved his life.

Extremes Meet.

The Richmond Despatch, which, through some means, has received a copy of McClellan's report, publishes copious extracts in its columns.—When it first appeared, the Democratic papers of the North lauded it as a production eminently and undoubtly patriotic. It is singular, but the Richmond editors use similar spectacles in viewing national affairs. The report was printed in the papers of the rebel capital, in columns decorated with headings sufficiently flaming and voluminous to do justice to the New York Herald or the countless editions of the Inquirer. It is strange, but while the Democratic press misrepresent and abuse the Government and its policies, the rebels, take the same view. When the charges are made that the Northern Democrats of the peace persuasion are allied to Southern rebels, the assertions are indignantly denied. Yet, "similar men hold similar views"—how is it?—Phila News.

A KINDLY SHEPHERD.—According to the Dundee Courier, the minister of a large congregation in Dundee, Scotland, was recently interrupted in the coarse of his forenoon sermon by the repeated coughing of his auditors Pausing in the midst of his observation, he addressed his congregation to the following effect: 'You go about the streets at the New Year time—you get drunk, and get cold—then you come here and cough, cough like a park of artillery. I think I must give you a vacation of six weeks, that you may have time to get sober, and to regain your health again."

TRAGEDY IN KENTUCKY.

[From the Louisville Democrat.]

In the Democrat, a few days since, we made brief mention of the killing of Lieut M. A. Hogan, of the 8th Michigan Infantry, at Camp Nelson, by Capt. Crandall, who is under arrest. He has been brought to this city, and is now confined in Barracks No. 1. We yesterday paid him a visit, and learned from him, the [illegible] with whom we have conversed about the fatal affair. The facts of the case, as related to us, are about as follows: On the 15th of January last Capt. Crandall, who was stationed in Greensburg, in this State, was ordered to report at Knoxville.

Not having seen his wife for a long time, Captain Crandall sent word to her at Russellville, at which place she was stopping, to come and see him. She left Russellville and proceeded as far as Lebanon, where she met Lieut. Hogan, who pretended to be very intimate with her husband, and offered to escort her to Campbellsville, as he was going there in a buggy. Mrs. Crandall supposing Lieut. Hogan to be a friend of her husband, gladly accepted his company. The two left Lebanon together, and, when a short distance out, Hogan commenced driving at such a rapid rate as to frighten the lady, and she desired him to drive slower, but he turned it off by saying that he was in a hurry, and that there was no danger.

After driving for some time they came to a vacant house, where Hogan halted and ordered the lady to get out of the buggy, which she resolutely refused to do. Hogan then, with pistol drawn, threatened to kill her if she did not obey him. She still remained and Hogan jerked her out of the buggy, and by force took her into the house, where he outraged her person. He then started forward, and when night came they stopped at a country house. Hogan there compelled the lady to pass herself for his wife [illegible] ner.

Upon reaching Greensburg, Mrs. Crandall related to her husband the outrageous and cruel treatment she had received at the hands of Hogan. Capt. Crandall, preferring to let the law have full sway, instead of administering justice himself, reported the case, and had an order issued for the arrest of Hogan.

On Tuesday last, while riding out from camp Nelson, he met Lieut. Hogan, who, in the coolest manner possible, not only acknowledged all charged against him, but made light of the matter. This was more than the Captain could stand, and he drew his pistol and fired twice, both shots taking effect in Hogan's breast, and causing instant death.

Capt. Crandall is under arrest, and will be tried by court-martial in this city.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A sympathizing tory went up the other day to condole with a lot of deserters in jail. To show his extreme friendliness he made this observation:

"Well my democratic freinds, it seems that you too are the subjects of abolition arbitrary arrests!"

A young deserter responded as follows:

"It makes no difference whether you call us democrats or ablitionists. One thing I know: I wouldn't have been in this cursed hole if it hadn't been for the persuasion of a few infernal Copperheads like yourself. I was all right in the army until these devils got about me, and induced me to desert.—I have dishonored myself and the service by listening to the advice of a set of villains!"

The Copperhead who went on a mission of condolence, turned on his heel and left. It was noticed at the time that he shook his head as though an enormous flea had commenced operating on a large scale in both ears.—Iowa State Journal.

☞ A Yankee, on going with a friend to dine at the house of an acquaintance, in order to save time, said, "Scrape for me, while I knock for both of us."

☞ A prisoner having been sentenced to the State Prison last week, it being the fourth time within the last twenty years, very coolly commenced singing "Home, Sweet Home."

☞ John Burns, the old hero of Gettysburgh, is in New York, where he is receiving much attention.

For President in 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,

ANDREW G. CURTIN,

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

REMOVAL.—The ARGUS OFFICE has been removed to the room over Dr. Cummins' Drug Store, nearly opposite our old office, where we may be found at all times, ready to attend to the wants of our friends and patrons. Entrance at the North side of the building.

☞ A good Adams printing press for Dr. Thos. Donehoo, late of Wellsville, Ohio, having located in Beaver, will receive calls at his office, in the Southern extremity of the National Hotel, in this place.

☞ The United States Sanitary Commission purpose holding in Philadelphia, in the early part of June next, a "Grand Central Fair," for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers. The success of the undertaking will greatly depend upon local associations, having for their object to secure contributions for the Fair.—Will Beaver county not do something to assist in the matter?

PRICES ADVANCING.—The type founders have issued a circular to all printers that they have raised the price of printing material 25 per cent. Paper makers have raised the price of paper one hundred per cent. The readers will see that publishers of newspapers are not likely to become millionaries in a hurry under this state of affairs. The only way to get along at all is to insist upon prompt settlement of accounts.

RAILROAD CHANGES.—J. N. M'Cullough, Esq., has been appointed General Superintendent of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad, in place of John B. Jervis, Esq., resigned. Mr. Jervis has been appointed Chief Engineer of the road. Persons having business with the above departments of the Company, will address the officers named above.

☞ The examination of the Classes in the Beaver Seminary and Institute, will take place Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, Mar. 9th, and 10th, and the Closing Exercises Thursday evening, Mar. 10th. Prizes will be awarded for the best Essay and best Reading. Prof. Cole's Seminary Class will perform a Cantata, entitled Music. An amusing Colloquy will also be performed.

☞ We learn that the friends of the Rev. Mr. Burt, of this town, conceived the idea of surprising him on last Thursday evening. This they did by the large number which came dropping in, one after another, till the house was filled, and by the presentation, through Rev. Dr. Cox, of a purse containing Eighty Dollars, as a token of their esteem and good will. After spending an hour or two very pleasantly and socially, the company left, impressed that surprises are sometimes pleasant affairs.

☞ At a caucus of Union men at Columbus, Ohio, on Friday night last, the followigg resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention the people of Ohio, and her soldiers in the army, demand the re-nomination of Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency of the United States.

The members spontaneously arose to their feet, and gave cheer upon cheer at the commencement of the passage of the resolution.

☞ The soldiers in the army, by correspondence, are loudly calling upon the people to supply them with material for bandages for the coming conflict. Thousands of our brave men will be wounded in those dreadful conflicts, and provision in this way should be made. We trust the Ladies' Aid Societies will take this matter in hands.

A NEW COUNTY.—An application for the erection of a new county, to be called Tionesta, out of parts of Venango, Clarion and Warren, will be presented to the Legislature at its present session.

THE GETTYSBURG CEMETERY.—The bodies of about 3,100 federal soldiers have been re-buried in the National Cemetry. Several hundreds are yet to be removed, the work upon which is steadily going forward, and will doubtless be completed by the first of April.

Rebel Armies and Supplies.

We see from information derived from sources that can be relied upon, that every effort which can be made, by human ingenuity and superhuman power, is to be made in the comitg spring to increase the rebel armies and to increase their supplies of the necessaries of life. The leaders of the rebellion in the different States, in arms against the authority of the government, express the highest hopes for the future of their fraudulent confederacy, but at the same time admit that the present aspect of their affairs is of the most gloomy character. The great complaint amongst the rebel authorities and leaders is that their citizens not yet in their army, are making every effort in their power to keep out, and the rebel Congress and Legislatures of the States are constantly urged to abolish all exemption and substitute, and compel every man old and young, able or unable, to enter the army and cause. They do not attempt to provide any means of furnishing supplies, or make any effort to feed and clothe the men already in the field, and who are suffering and enduring unheard of hardships. The very effort to force the whole male population into their armies without regarding the means of their support is of itself one strong and overwhelming evidence of the desperation of their cause. They are evidently convinced that in the approaching spring campaign their fate is to be decided, and hence their mighty efforts to fill up their armies, already reduced to mere skeletons, by death, starvation and desertion. They often threaten to make soldiers of their slaves, and compel them to fight for their cause, but they know well they dare not do it. But they are in reality pursuing another course with their negroes. They are making teamsters and laborers of them, and thus they are enabled to compel all their white men who are engaged in profitable business on their own account, who are exempted from, or avoid military service upon one pretext or another, and thousands of them are now driving teams and cattle for agents of their government, and for contractors. These men are about to be compelled to shoulder their muskets, and their places supplied by negroes. In this matter the Government of the United States might take a profitable lesson, and compel all the hangers-on about our armies to [illegible] with those who are not able to fight.

It appears that the rebel impressment law is not considered quite stringent enough, and some of the States Legislatures are passing laws to enable their Governors to do more for their cause. In some of the Southern States where supplies cannot be had for the army at reasonable rates, their Governors are empowered to to order impressments of supplies of food and clothing—an authority without any limit, and to impress slaves for the public service. Thus they leave their helpless women and children to suffer all the horrors of starvation. They have also directed that all slaves shall be impressed, so far as they are needed, and have gone a step further than any civilized nation, in directing that all aliens within the limits of rebeldom shall be enrolled and compelled to enter their armies. There seems to be no blanks to be drawn in their sweeping conscription lottery.

The friends of the Union everywhere in the rebel States, are persecuted in the most vindictive and merciless spirit. We already know to some extent what they and their martyred companions have suffered.—Thousands of them have been driven from their homes,—their property has been destroyed or carried away, and many of them and their innocent and helpless familes murdered with the most hellish cruelty, for no other crime than loving the glorious old flag of their country. The bones of these patriots whiten the soil of every State in rebellion, and yet one of their Governors in the spirit of a demon says, "We have dealt too leniently with those who stick to the old Union. The time has arrived when toryism should and must no longer be tolerated. Thus it is meant that the brave and loyal men who yet remain where the rebellion has uncontrolled sway are to be utterly exterminated.

All these facts go to show that the rebellion is about to close. The leaders are growing desperate in view of the punishment which awaits them at the hands of an injured and oppressed people. The administration of President Lincoln is preparing for a vigorous campaign as soon as our armies can move, and we have hopes from all the signs which now so clearly appear, that our country will be again, before the summer closes, restored to peace and prosperity.—May God speed our gallant armies which marches for the deliverance of the Southern States from the accursed hands of the present powers who have conspired against human freedom and right.

Judge McGuffin.

During two days of last week, the Hon. L. L. M'Guffin presided at an adjourned meeting of our Courts, being his first appearance here in his judicial capacity since his appointment. His courteous and gentlemanly manner, and familiarity with legal proceedings, made a most favorable impression upon the minds of the members of the Bar and others who were in attendance. There being no trial of causes, but dry arguments upon legal questions brought before the Court, the Judge had not a full opportunity of displaying his legal bearing and ability as a lawyer. Judge McGuffin has had long experience, and a most extensive practice in his profession, and deservedly stands high as [illegible] has the pleasure of his acquaintance, esteems him highly for his many excellent qualities of mind and heart; and we have no doubt he will be able to give entire satisfaction to the people of this Judicial District.

On Wednesday evening, the 24th ult., the members of the Bar and officers of the Courts of this county, gave the Judge a supper, at the Beaver Hotel in this place. The Judge, with the gentlemen who accompanied him from New Castle, appeared to enjoy the social gathering with their friends of the legal profession and those who are connected with our Courts. Altogether, we can say that we never were present upon any occasion of the kind, when there was manifested so much desire on the part of each one, to make the affair pass off as agreeably as possible. All were much pleased with the courtesy and kindness of the Judge and his friends from Lawrence county. If the gentlemen present are a fair specimen of the inhabitants of our sister county, we must say that Lawrence county must be a very desirable place of residence; for in all the social qualities, and intelligence, they appeared to great advantage.

Our host, Mr. Joseph Hall, and his most excellent family, richly deserved all the credit they received for the splendid manner in which the entertainment was got up. The tables fairly groaned with the great abundance [illegible] to please the appetite was there, and was done up in a style that cannot be surpassed. Mr. Hall's house, although not large, is kept in a superior style, and is worthy the patronage of all who desire a pleasant home and good living.

These re-unions seem to have a most happy influence—by making men better acquainted, bringing out all that is social and kindly in our nature, and in softening the roughness and asperities which the human family is to a great extent afflicted.

Homicide in Lawrence County.

We learn from the Pittsburg Chronicle that a man named Thomas Dunn died a few days ago in New Castle, from injuries received a short time before at the hands of his wife. The deceased, it appears, went home intoxicated, and his wife, Mary Dunn, being the same condition, fell on him with a club, and beat him severely on the right side and arm. Erysipelas of a malignant character took place in the bruised side and arm, causing his death in a few days. An inquest was held, and the jury rendered a verdict that he came to his death by erysipelas, induced by blows inflicted by his wife, Mary Dunn, and a poisoned state of the system from his habits of intemperance.

Election of Dr. St. Clair.

The official returns of the late special election, held Friday 19th ult., in the Indiana and Armstrong District, for State Senator, shows a majority of 2006 for the Union candidate, Dr. Thos. St. Clair. The Indiana American says "the majority given for the Union candidate is more than the most sanguine expected. The majority is within a few votes of the majority given last fall for Gov. Curtin, and plainly shows that we were right in judging that the good Republicans of this county were fully awake to the importance of the contest. All hail the glorious yeomanry of Indiana county. They are ever awake to their true interests."

DEATH OF MRS. GEN. WM. H. HARRISON.—This lady departed this life on Friday last, at the advanced age of eighty-eight years and seven months, at the residence of her son, the Hon. J. Scott Harrison, near North Bend. The funeral took place on Sunday morning, from the residence of her son-in-law, Colonel Taylor, at Cleves.

Draft Circular.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.

The following circular has been issued from the Provost Marshal General's office:

Boards of Enrollment will at once commence preparing cards for the draft of men enrolled, including the second-class. The cards will be uniform in shape, size and color with those of the first class, and will contain the name, residence of the person, with the number which is opposite his name on the enrollment lists.—The names of persons heretofore stricken from the lists for manifest permanent physical disability and non-residence, will not be placed in the box or wheel, nor the names of those who were drafted and held to service, or who paid commutation or furnished a substitute under the preliminary part of the draft of 1863. The names of those known to be actually in the service at the time of the receipt of the order for the draft will also be left out of the box or wheel. The names of all other persons enrolled will be put in the draft box.

J. B. FRY, Provost Marshal Gen'l.

A MURDERER EXECUTED.—The execution of Jeremiah Stretcher, for the murder of the McCoy family, at Medina, Ohio, took place on Friday last. The murderer appears, had recently made a determined effort to starve himself to death, and was so weak and prostrate that he was unable to stand, and had to be carried to the scaffold. A short time previous to his execution, M. Foote, the father of Mrs. M'Coy was introduced into his cell, when the prisoner asked, "Is this Mrs. M'Coy father?" and when an affirmative answer was given, added, "As there is a God in heaven, I am innocent of your daughter's murder." On the scaffold he bore himself with extraordinary fortitude. He was too weak to either sit or stand, and lay down while the final arrangements for his execution were being made. Before the rope was put around his neck he succeeded in rising to his feet by a grand effort, and addressing the audience, said: "Of the crime for which I am about to die, I am entirely innocent. May God forgive all those who have wronged me." A brute in the crowd shouted "Played out," and a horror stricken thrill went through the assemblage, who were awed by the declaration, though convinced of its untruth. The final scene now took place. The rope was adjusted round the neck of the culprit, and sitting on a chair he was placed on the drop.—The trap was then sprung, and the body of the wretched man hung dangling in the air. The execution was witnessed by fifteen thousand persons, including a large number of females and several children.

Defamation of the Pennsylvania Reserve corps from imputations cast upon them in Gen. McClellan's report, for alleged bad conduct at the battle of Glendale. It contains Gen. McCall's report of the battle, together with the reports of the subordinate commanders, and ends with the following statement:

We, the undersigned, officers of the Pennsylvania Reserves, who fought in the battle of the 30th of June, 1862, variously called the battle of Nelson's Farm, Glendale and New Market Cross Roads, do hereby distinctly state that our division was not routed in that battle, and, although temporary reverse was sustained by Seymour's brigade early in the day, the division was at no time routed.

and thirty-seven other officers.

REBEL PERSEVERANCE AT CHARLESTON.—A correspondent of the Boston Traveler, speaing of the perseverance of the rebels at Charleston, in their efforts to destroy the fleet guarding that post, sys four torpedo boats are now ready for use, have been tried and found not only completely manageable, but very efficient; twenty-five more torpedo vessels are in course of construction by them in the city, and are in various stages of completion. The iron-clads have all been provided with outrigger spars and networks to ward off the attacks from these vessels. The correspondent thinks that if the rebels had command of the resources which we have, they would ere this have raised the blockade by their persistance.

THE REBEL SIEGE CAMPAIGN.—One of the New York papers has a dispatch from Washington, which alleges that import plans are preparing at Richmond for the spring campaign. Kentucky, Maryland and Pennsylvania, the dispatch says, are again to be invaded and Lee's army will be rapidly reated for a desperate struggle. Fifty thousand men are to be put into Virginia alone.—Immense defensive works are being constructed along Rapidan. The works on that line though of not a very formidable character, are however, of a sufficient strength to protract our advance in that direction and render the march to Richmond dangerous to our foes.

The Draft Postponed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.

The draft has been postponed till the first of April. The total number of new enlistments under the President's call of last November two hundred thousand men. But one hundred and thirty thousand now in the army, comprising battery and regimental organization, whose terms expire on or before the first of January, one hundred thousand have reenlisted.

From Chattanooga.

BUZZARD ROOST, NEAR DALTON,
FRIDAY, Feb. 26, 6 A. M.

Gen. Davis' loss on yesterday was about one hundred and fifty in killed, wounded and missing. Crufts and Baird's division had severe engagement with the enemy on the extreme left yesterday, and having pushed a recompoissance far enough they fell back in the night to the left of Tunnel Hill, to which the centre and right will retire. The enemy opened on Johnson's advance with musketry about midnight, wounding Col. Matalal, of the 24th Illinois, and others. Harrison and Brown's cavalry got in sight of Dalton, and had a brisk fight with the enemy.—The ball is not yet opened, at this a. m., but will likely do so when we return to Tunnel Hill, where we will no doubt entrench ourselves and hold our position.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

6 P. M.—This morning the ball opened at one o'clock, one mile in advance, by Gen. McCook's brigade on the right, and Gen. Morgan's on the left.

Gen McCook drove the enemy half a mile, assisted by Harris' 11th Indiana Battery.

Picket skirmishing continally all day.

Gen Hotchkiss drove the rebel battery off.

The rebels [illegible] neared on the right in pretty strong force.

The rebels work twelve pieces of artillery.

Gen Morgan drove the enemy one mile and retired half a mile.

The total loss was about seventy today, mostly wounded.

We hold our ground to night.

Gen. Cruft has been fighting the enemy on the east of Rocky Face Ridge all day, and driving them. No intelligence from them since.

The resistance of the enemy was found very stubborn.

Lieut.-Gen. Grant.

A dispatch from Washington, dated Feb. 26th, says:—The Conference Committee having agreed, Congress to day passed the bill creating the rank of lieutenant general. It was duly engrossed and signed by the President, who was at the Capitol at the time of its passage. To-night the President issued the commission of lieutenant general to Ulysses S Grant, of Illinois. Representative Washburne will either leave to morrow or Sunday for Chattanooga, bearing the commission in person to General Grant, who thus holds the only position ever conferred on any person in this country except George Washington, General Scott's rank of lieutenant general being merely that of brevet. The new law is so worded that the lieutenant general is only ex-officio commander-in-chief of all the armies, and therefore it does not disturb Halleck [illegible] of the Democrats, and most of the border State men voted against the creation of the new rank to-day.

WASHINGTON, Febuary 29.—The bill revising the grade of Lieutenant General was signed by the presiding officer of each House of Congress to day. It has yet to be presented to the President for his approval before it becomes a law. Therefore the announcement that General Grant has been appointed to that office is premature.

NEW YORK Feb. 27.—The Express says that an officer who arrived in the Fulton furnished the following interesting particulars concerning the recent disaster in Florida: It was the opinion of the officers who took part in the expedition that our losses in killed, wounded and missing are between twelve and fifteen hundred. General Seymour is severely censured for not throwing out scouts and skirmishers as our troops advanced. As it was, our men were led into a trap. Hamilton's artillery led the van and suffered severely, the rebel sharp shooters picking off their horses, so that the guns had to be abandoned. The 40th Massachusetts Mounted Infantry also suffered severely. In the retreat many of our wounded were left behind within the enemy's lines. Our troops were right in front of Confederate batteries in a piece of woods before we were aware of their presence, and when their guns opened a galling fire our men were driven panic stricken and in disorder. The rebel force is not known, but is supposed to be large.—One prisoner who was taken says that troops had recently been sent down from Charleston, and that Beauregard was in command there. Gen. Seymour, who commanded the expedition, has been placed under arrest by order of Gen. Gillmore, and is succeeded by Gen. Vodges, who left Hilton Head on Tuesday last with a reinforcement of one entire divison for Jacksonsville.

Arrival of Refugees.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—To-day forty-three refugees from Richmond, consisting of men, women and children, were taken to the Provost Marshal's office by U. S. Detective Carter, of the steamer Weldon, which were picked up at different points on the Lower Potomac. The personal effects of the parties filled two large furniture wagons, and many of them had upon their person a considerable amount of money in gold and silver.—These refugees are principally Germans, but are unwilling to reveal anything in relation to affairs in Richmond. Perhaps it is on account of their ignorance or from the fact that the head of each family has a pass saying the bearer has taken the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States, and being pledged not to reveal, either directly or indirectly, any information that may benefit the enemy, is permitted to pass the limits of the Confederacy.

Latest from N. Orleans.—Sherman's March Thro' Mississippi.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The steamer Evening Star has arrived with New Orleans advices of the 20th, via Havana on the 22d.

Two Union soldiers, named Welles, of the 9th Illinois Cavalry, and Ferguson, of the 6th Illinois Cavalry, and who were captured on the 6th December at Moscow, Tenn., had arrived at New Orleans. They report the woods full of refugees from the conscription officers, and patrols, with bloodhounds, were on all the principal roads.

The rebel papers report General Sherman's march through Mississippi as being a triumphant affair, the rebels being badly whipped in every case where they attempted a stand.

No returns of losses on either side are reported except that Adams' rebel cavalry lost 200.

At Jackson, 2,000 citizens had written to Gen. Banks asking him to speak in public on politics. He declined on the ground that he did not wish to be seen to throw military authority with the political balance.

There is no news of importance from Texas. A report says that Col Dudley's cavalry brigade are about to go there. Per contra, transports have been sent to Pass Cavalvo to bring away 6,000 troops. At all events, there are indications of active movements.

Advices from San Domingo state that Spanish troops have taken the towns of Ferva and Burra, aided by two war steamers. The towns were in ashes when the troops entered.

News from Cursasco reports the entry of Gen. Falcon as President of Venezeula.

The transport Belvidere had arrived at New Orleans, from Pensacola.—She brings news that the Hartford and other vessels were lying at anchor there.

The 29th and 30th Maine Regiments had arrived, and left for the Attakapas country.

The presence of two or three Confederate gunboats in Grand Lake shows that the rebels are again up and doing there.

Gen. Dick Taylor commands the Confederate forces.

News form the Southwest.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 26.—Arrivals from Vicksburg confirm the previous reports, that Gen. Sherman had occupied Selma, Ala.

Reports from Gen. Smith's cavalry expedition were not so good. Several stragglers, who arrived here to-day, state that Forrest, Adams, Lee and Roddy had concentrated against him, and succeeded in forcing him back, with considerable loss. He had a severe fight at West Point, Miss.

The slow movements of Col. Warring's division, consisting mainly of New Jersey and Pennsylvania regiments, delayed this expedition some eight days, giving the enemy time to concentrate against them.

[illegible] slowly falling back towards Memphis, but the report is not generally believed, as little credit can be placed in the statements of stragglers.

KNOXVILLE, February 26.—At the last accounts Longstreet was still retreating. His headquarters being at Greenville on Wednesday night, our cavalry came upon their rear guard in the vicinity of Bean's Station yesterday. A slight skirmish ensued and the rebels gave way.—Gen. Schofield is pursuing with his troops, but owing to the rapid retreat of the enemy no engagement is expected this side of the Virginia line. The railroad bridge at Strawberry Plains and the track were injured beyond the possibility of present use.—Five officers and a number of men deserted when Longstreet fell back, and have taken the amnesty oath. The officers state that Longstreet is retreating to Richmond with his original troops, leaving Johnston and Buckner to protect the Virginia border.

SELMA.—General Sherman's forces have occupied Selma, a very important military position in Alabama.—The place is in Dallas county, situated on the right bank of the Alabama river. The population in 1861 was 3,177. The town is laid out on an elevated plateau, which terminates abruptly in a steep bluff, forming the bank of the river. Passengers ascend and descend from and to steamboats by means of long flights of steps, and merchandise is drawn up the bluff by machinery. Selma is the Southern terminus of the Alabama and Tennessee railroad, and the Alabama and Mississippi railroad connects it with Umontown and Marion. In 1860 it had two iron foundries, a carriage manufactory, two banks, two public halls, three daily newspapers, six churches and a number of public and private schools. In the winter of 1859-60 it exported nearly one hundred thousand bales of cotton. By the course of the river, Selma is eighty-one miles below Montgomery, the original seat of the Confederate Government.

THE REBELS ON GRANT'S MOVEMENTS.—A Washington dispatch of the 26th to the Philadelphia Press has the following: The Richmond Enquirer of the 25th says that if Grant defeats Johnston, Georgia and Alabama are open to him, and Mobile will fall without a struggle. Geo. P. Kane, the notorious Marshal Kane, of Baltimore, had arrived in Richmond, and been made a Colonel. The Examiner says: The fate of Mobile is inevitable in the affair of Grant and Johnston, and the enemy would naturally await the result of that crisis rather than incur a needless hazard in attacking Mobile at this time.

☞ The Rhode Island House of Representatives declared with great unanimity for the reelection of President Lincoln, on Thursday.

☞ John W. Andrews, who played a very prominent part in the draft riots on the 13th of July last, had on Saturday three indictments presented against him in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Shipman presiding—one for inciting and setting on foot and engaging in a rebellion and insurrection against the United States; the second for treason, and for inciting and aiding a resistance to the draft; the third was for conspiracy to levy war against the United States. The District-Attorney made the usual requisition on General Dix for Andrews, who is at present in Fort Lafayette. Andrews will be put upon his trial in a few days.

SINGULAR, IF TRUE.—The Lancaster Trumpet, of Elizabethtown, says that after the death, a few days since, of a young woman at the residence of Martin Inly, in Rapho township, a beautiful white rose and bud made their appearance on her lips; said horticultural phenomenon being hard like ivory and continuing to grow until her interment. Skeptics said it was a natural rose, placed on the face as an ornament, but were convinced by inspection that they were mistaken.

LEE'S ARMY.—Information received at army headquarters is said to warrant the belief that Lee has not over 25,000 or 30,000 men, the rest having been sent to different quarters in consequence of the difficulty of getting provisions. Loose reports of fighting on Saturday are in circulation, but are not known to have any foundation.

NO MURDER.—The Pittsburg Chronicle gives a statement of a homicide murder of a soldier which should have taken place in this county. The soldier was not murdered, and the account of the affair was rather premature on the part of the Chronicle. The infidelity of the soldier's wife as stated in that paper, may have foundation which gave rise to the reported murder.—Lawrence Journal.

GEN. SICKLES.—The New York Herald's Washington dispatches of the 28th say that Gen. Sickles is expected to start on Wednesday for the West, and thence visit the Atlantic coast, Nashville, Chattanooga, Arkansas, Hilton Head, Fortress Monroe, &c., to investigate concerning the rebel deserters, prisoners of war, and parties taken within our lines, the result of which is to be laid before the President for guidance of his future policy in relation to Southern disloyalists.

☞ The Conference Committee on the Whisky Tax, has finally voted to ask the Senate and House to instruct them to tax whisky on hand twenty-five cents a gallon, and to raise the sliding scale to eighty cents on whisky made after July 1, and a hundred cents after Jan. 1, 1865. This is a great deal better than nothing, and we believe the country has to thank for it the resolute integrity of Mr. Washburne of Illinois.

NEW YORK, February 29.—The Times says:—We have information of a formidable offensive movement by a very large force from the Army of the Potomac, which was initiated on Saturday night, and may possibly be heard from to day. The demonstration is a very bold one, but is in brave hands and will be supported by a powerful force.

SENSIBLE EDITOR.—A comical sort of a newspaper editor rejects an offer of a druggist to advertise his drugs and medicine, and take his pay out of the shop. He says he will take nearly all sorts of produce in payment for papers and advertising, "such as parsnips, wooden combs, old clothes, old victuals, &c.,"—but he won't take PHYSIC.

☞ By despatches from Gen. Banks' Department we learn that Admiral Farragut had six mortar boats accompanying his flagship, the Hartford. The rebels are reported to have twenty thousand troops in and around Mobile, and two ironclads, the Tennessee and the Nashville, are being in the harbor.

FALL IN GOLD.—The Government has commenced the payment of the semi-annual interest on the 7-30 U. S. Treasury notes. Some two millions of gold will be thrown on the market by this payment. Gold is consequently on the fall, and is likely to get a little lower.

☞ A soldier writes from Charlestown, Va, that our men are so much at home, that many of them will settle in the Shenandoah Valley after the war is over. Some thirty of them have married, and from the courting going on among the country girls, many more will probably follow their example.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch contains an advertisement of the Danville Female College, announcing that the price of board for twenty weeks is $500, or five barrels of flour.

☞ DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT has given universal satisfaction during the fourteen years it has been introduced into the United States. After being tried by millions, it has been proclaimed the pain destroyer of the world. Pain cannot be where this liniment is applied. If used as directed it cannot and never has failed in a single instance. For colds, coughs and influenza, it can't be beat. One 25 cent bottle will cure all the above beside being useful in every family for sudden accidents, such as burns, cuts, scalds, insect stings, &c. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New-York. Sold by all Druggists.

DIED—In Beaver, on the 17th ult., WILLIS GORMLY, son of Dr. P. B. and S. G. Young, aged 6 months and 21 days.

By the sixth section of the act of July 1, 1862, it is made the duty of all persons, partnerships, firms, associations, or corporations, made liable to any annual duty, license, or tax, on or before the first Monday of May in each year, to make a list or return to the Assistant Assessor of the District where located of the amount of annual income, the articles or objects charged with a special tax, and the business or occupation liable to pay any license.

Payment of the annual taxes, except those for licenses, will not be demanded until the thirtieth day of June.

The appropriate blanks on which to make return, and all necessary information, will be furnished by Geo. W. Hamilton Eli Reno, and Wm. R. Trimble, Assistant Assessors for this county, to whom the returns should be delivered on or before the first Monday of May, at their offices, in Beaver, New Brighton and Hookstown respectively.

GET SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND!

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure. MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

You cannot put into the Knapsack of Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable nor more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Therfore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made official in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Compound Extract of Colocynth,
Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,
Citrate of Irod and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,
Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark agreeable; chalybeates,
Syrup of the Hypophosphites,
Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,
Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,
Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,
Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia; same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects.
Pyro-phosphate of Iron; soluble,

These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS,

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

"VANITY FAIR."

It is both sharp and good-tempered, and not afraid to say that its soul is its own—which shows that it has a soul. Our readers will be glad to know where they can find native fun that has something better in it than mere patois."—Atlantic Monthly.

"This paper is excellent. . . . . Remarkable for originality."—N. Y. Traveller.

"VANITY FAIR is conducted by a vivacious, witty and intelligent corps of journalists."—Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer.

"Whosoever finds himself laughing at the wit of VANITY FAIR, and does not return a quid pro quo, is fit for treason, and spoils."—N. Y. Crayon.

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd, an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and not leading citizens of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle says: We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can
